

What people and things help you recognize God's love and presence in the world and in your life?